11:30 am – 12:30 pm: Sign in & registration in Grand Ballroom A

12:30 pm – 12:45 pm: Welcome & program introduction by Wyoming Women's Legislative Caucus leadership

12:45 pm – 2:00 pm: Campaign 101: The tools and support you will need to run, execute and manage a successful campaign.

A workshop on laying the groundwork for a successful campaign with Katie Groke Ellis of Vote Run Lead.

2:00 pm – 2:15 pm: Break

2:15 pm – 3:45 pm: Rewiring Leadership: Leveraging Soft Skills

Learn how to build an infrastructure for resilience, empathy, self-awareness and organizational awareness, the top skills for today's leading businesses. Flitner, a communication and leadership expert, and former mayor of Jackson, will utilize personal experience and trends in science to enhance your skills for leading teams, organizations and life.

3:45 pm – 4:00 pm: Break

4:00 pm – 5:30 pm: Rewiring Leadership: Cultivating Civility, Community and Compassion

In a deeper dive with Flitner, find out why building skills that enhance relationship awareness at the individual and organizational level is the most efficient, effective way to build bottom line results, insight and innovation. In an era that has witnessed 10 point gains in IQ with every generation since the 1900's, why aren't we making bigger dents in the problems that plague our communities and businesses?

5:30 pm – 6:00 pm: Break

6:00 pm – 7:00 pm: Cocktail Reception

7:00 pm – 9:00 pm: Legislative Dinner featuring keynote speaker Abi Ferrin, a Wyoming native and fashion designer whose Freedom Project supports rescue, rehabilitation and entrepreneurial opportunities for former victims of sexual trafficking and abusive employment.
